

Powhatan County

Economic Development

Where Niche Businesses Live

Powhatan County is a rural community with various businesses from agricultural to manufacturing, all with unique characteristics. Understanding that these businesses are the heart of Powhatan County, the Economic Development Department is committed to their success and growth.

A growing economy starts from within.

Powhatan Economic Development

3834 Old Buckingham Rd. Ste. H

Powhatan, VA 23139

www.yespowhatan.com

804-598-5605

Existing Business Assistance

Solutions to Business Growth Barriers

- Confidential meetings to understand challenges faced by your business
- Staff serve as liaison with County Offices, agencies and officials
- Business and Regulatory question assistance
- Specialized assistance with business challenges

Assisting with Business Expansion

- Site/Building selection assistance
- Database of available properties for sale or lease
- Permitting and site plan guidance/application support
- Information on incentives

Valuable Resource Connections

- Labor market information and analysis
- Workforce Development resources
- Import/Export resources and programs
- Tax and Utility costs

Key Areas of Assistance for Existing Businesses

- Site Selection
- Workforce Solutions
- Problem Solving
- Permitting
- Marketing

Contact the Economic Development Department today to schedule a confidential meeting.

econdev@powhatanva.gov